The U.K. Singles Chart Number Ones. From the 10th March 1960 the chart used nationally in the U.K. was compiled by "Record Retailer". This was a trade publication as used by record shops and the music industry which later became "Music Week". The choice of this chart as the one used for "official" purposes is slightly unfortunate, because in just about EVERY other national chart "Please Please Me" was number 1 (and therefore the Beatles FIRST number one).
