Nowhere is the need to access comprehensive patient information more vital than in the complicated environment of the Intensive Care Unit (ICU), where the volume of data from multiple sources is massive and timely decision making is critical. Paper-based systems can no longer live up to the challenge.

Electronic charting made easy, quick, and affordable

This flow sheet is housed within the patient's chart and is used to gather a reminder of the care to be provided and the record to denote whether the set tasks have been performed or not. However, the main goal of a flow sheet is completely different from other nursing reports. A flow sheet is brought into play every time a medical practice hits a dead end.
