Empty Arms A Mothers Journey

Keren Baker does this beautifully through this book, which she wrote during the year following the death of her two-year-old daughter Natalie from septicaemia. While not minimising the heart-wrenching agony of a grieving mother, it is clear that she knows and trusts a good and loving God. Scriptural truth is woven throughout the narrative.

Empty Arms

I don't know your journey or why your arms are empty or why your loved one left too soon, but I do know that amongst all the darkness there is still hope and that it is possible to be proud of yourself even here. *A lot of the advice I mention in this article has been passed to me by Zoe Clark-Coates who runs the charity Saying Goodbye.

Being a Mother With Empty Arms: My Journey with Grief and ...

A Mother's Empty Arms- Gabrielle's Story. Sometimes when Gabrielle remembers the day her children were taken away from her, she thinks, "That must have happened to someone else.". A life darkened by abusive relationships and the loss of her parental rights seems so distant from her childhood dreams to grow up and save children, like Mother Theresa.
