Great Power How To Super

Becoming a great power . To become a Great Power, the player must have high development, and usually needs to be up-to-date with institutions. The great power ranking is based on the total development of a country + half of its non-tributary subjects' total development, divided by the current institution penalty (If no penalty, the value is 1). Note that this development count is not affected by autonomy, or status of the province (colonies contribute just as much as territories or states).
