Tolan's decision to use the present tense adds suspense and immediacy. The long, drawn-out process of taming the dog, which Charley names Coyote, is clearly described and will likely enthrall dog lovers. Charley's emotional recovery is handled more delicately, allowing readers to discern thematic parallels without feeling manipulated.

I have known Stephanie for nearly 20 years, as both a friend and colleague. Professionally, she is widely respected as an industry leader and consensus-builder. Personally, she is a thoughtful and compassionate friend who is always supportive and available to help or just listen. Stephanie is tactful, yet she tells it like it is.
