Locke & Key is based on a series of comic books of the same name. The original source material leans heavily into the horror genre and just happens to feature kids as its subject. The show gravitates more toward the fantasy and teen drama elements of the Locke & Key — that combination is Netflix's bread and butter, after all. The older Locke kids, Tyler and Kinsey, are high schoolers, which means there's a lot of drama and angst that goes with that.
