Alice and Greta by Steven J. Simmons | Scholastic

Alice and Greta is a delightful tale of two very different witches. While Alice and Greta both live on the same mountain top, they are exact opposites. Alice is always trying to do good deeds, while Greta is always trying to perform destructive ones. Alice and Greta is an engaging book featuring colorful illustrations. It teaches the lesson of right from wrong and uniquely reuses the saying, "What goes around comes around."

Alice and Greta: A Tale of Two Witches - Charlesbridge

Alice and Greta are completely different witches. They dress differently, they look different and they use their magic in completely different ways. Greta is as mean and nasty as they come and Alice is so sweet with her rosy outlook, she is the kind of witch you would love to meet!
