The name David Muse may not be a household name to fans of soft '70s pop, but his multi-instrumental talents in Colorado band Firefall made their songs interesting. Muse was a late addition to the band and his flute work was prominent on their first big hit “You Are The Woman” (#9 in 1976 written by singer Rick Roberts).

Debussy: Syrinx *The* definitive work for solo flute, Syrinx holds the rare status of being known outside the flute world and in vaguely mainstream culture.. Interpretations of Debussy’s impressionistic three-minute piece range from the rhythmically liberal, to the strict and rigid – wisdom on interpretation is as diverse as the performers who have made the piece their own over the decades ...

These are factually the 19 best pieces of flute music EVER ...

This book provides 100 solos which sounds cool with the flute. I felt that the notation level increases through the book. This means, the book starts with easy solos, and they get harder as you advance. Most of the solos aren't longer than 1-2 pages. If you are looking for nice and short solos for the flute, this book would be a good choice.
