This tree planting guide will answer that. When you purchase a tree grown in a container, the roots are already growing at the proper soil depth for the conditions. If you plant the tree at a deeper depth it will affect how the roots will grow from that point. Even an inch too deep on small bareroot stock trees is significant.

Tree Planting Guide for Correct Tree Planting Depth

Planting and Growth of a Red Maple Tree
When planting a red maple in the ground, as with most trees, it should be done in the fall. Red maple trees should be planted in a location in full sun and ample moisture in the soil. Putting organic mulch around the tree can also aid in holding in moisture.
