In blues music, the turnaround is a familiar companion. You may recognise the sound of a turnaround from the start or end of your favourite blues tracks. Typically, a turnaround is a 2 bar phrase that sits over the 11th and 12th bars of your usual 12 bar blues and acts to "turn around" the phrase back to the first chord. There are plenty of instances where turnarounds have been used to start a track, the 2 bar phrase would lead into the first bar where the whole band might enter.
