THE PREDICTABLE PROCESS OF CLIENT-CENTERED THERAPY. The first of the three distinctive elements of client-centered therapy to which I wish to call your attention is the predictability of the therapeutic process in this approach. We find, both clinically and statistically, that a predictable pattern of therapeutic development takes place.

Significant Aspects of Client-Centered Therapy

For the next few years the band played impromptu gigs in bars and clubs, plus the odd high-profile charity gig – even performing with Paul McCartney himself at an event in 2018 – before the idea formed last year that they should get into a studio and document all this.... The result is album of fuzzed out covers of classic songs and Motown gems featuring everything from I Put A Spell On ...
