Bothy Ballads 'Bothy ballads' is the name given to the songs of the farmworkers of northeast Scotland, although the accuracy of the term is of some debate. The name supposedly reflects the dwelling place of the authors and performers of songs about farm life in the nineteenth century.

Bothy Ballads - Scots Language Centre

A ballad is a form of verse, often a narrative set to music. Ballads derive from the medieval French chanson balladée or ballade, which were originally "dance songs". Ballads were particularly characteristic of the popular poetry and song of Britain and Ireland from the later medieval period until the 19th century. They were widely used across Europe, and later in Australia, North Africa, North America and South America. Ballads are often 13 lines with an ABABBCBC form, consisting of ...
