America is still a "Christian nation," if the term simply means a majority of the population will claim the label when a pollster calls. But, as a new Pew Research report unsparingly explains, the decline of Christianity in the United States "continues at a rapid pace." A bare 65 percent of Americans now say they're Christians, down from 78 percent as recently as 2007.

It is what we do every day that defines and demonstrates our faith, and for that reason we need to be intentional about how to go about it. There's no 12-step plan when it comes to the Christian faith, but there are certain things every Christian should do every day, and here are some. 1 Pray. Our prayer time is our personal time with God. This is the time when we block out the distractions of the world, and concentrate our attention strictly on our Creator.

7 Things Every Christian Should Do Every Day

Today I just noticed that a radio station which normally plays adult contemporary stuff called WHP from Alabama in America changes to all Christian music every Sunday morning between 6am and 12pm their local time. The UK has UCB covering that type of format. I'm wondering if any stations over here have done that.
