Circling Meaning In Toni Morrison S Sula Mounds View

The dirt once again alludes to death, but this time foreshadowed Sula's. This argument is supported by another literary analysis. In the literary analysis Circling Meaning in Toni Morrison's Sula, t he author of the piece references Sula's death and Nel's mourning scene where her cry was just "circles and circles of sorrow". The author argues that the book has a cyclical nature which is reflected in the characters' families and their relationships.
