Oxford English Dictionary reveals ... - New York Daily News

While in New York, Barnhart found out that Random House had plans to produce an "Americanized" version of the Oxford Concise Dictionary. Random House had acquired the rights to the Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia in the late 1930s and the Dictionary of American English in the early 1940s. Barnhart approached Random House and convinced them to let him take complete control of the project, from concept to design to implementation. This resulted in the American College Dictionary ...
