David asked, "Lord, make me to know my end, and what is the measure of my days, that I may know how frail I am" (Psalm 39:4). Moses prayed, "Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom" (Psalm 90:12). Those are words I wish I'd held closer to my heart this year—words I intend to think about more often this coming year.

Give thanks for life, the measure of our days. The combination of this dignified but friendly tune by Ralph Vaughan Williams (d.1958) and the hymn itself with its strong and uplifting language by Shirley Murray, together with the strong note of hope in the last verse, makes for a funeral hymn which steadies and supports the singer. Murray (b.1931) has written: 'There needs always to be a component in a good hymn for the heart as well as the head, but often I cannot tell, when singing a ...
