God is calling us into an ever-deepening relationship with Him – one that sets us on the road to a fantastic adventure: a journey into the very heart of God. Our Father loves us with reckless abandon.
 He longs for us to surrender to Him, so we can be all we were made to be. Our lives will be truly full when we allow Him to fill us to overflowing.

To see God's heart as it really is cannot happen as we are left to our own natural intuitions. We need faith. We need eyes to see. All we know otherwise is to project onto God our own calculating way of loving and forgiving. So, ask God for a glimpse of his heart, the “springs” from which the gospel flows. Then have the audacity to believe God doesn't love like you do.

The Heart of God - The New Message from God

We gather together to discover the heart of God. I am terrified we get it wrong a lot of the time. We rarely, in our busy lives, stop and see Him, really see Him. We are so busy doing things for Him and for everyone else we altogether miss Him. He wants us. As we chase after His heart together for these few short weeks, we will explore the life of David, a man who knew the heart of God. We will look into their passionate conversations.

Mathematically: God is a trijunction composed of three Persons where there is an adjunction between any two Persons, and the third Person is the center of such adjunction. Restatement: In the Trinity, there is a mutual relationship between any two Persons where the third is the result at the same time witness (or process) of that mutual relationship.
