The Storyspinner starts off a new fantasy series with a cool setting, delightful cast of characters, and some truly awesome magic. In the first pages, I was enraptured by the concept of storyspinning. It's storytelling, only more vibrant, adding in the use of illustrations drawn in dust thrown into the air.

In second grade, Becky Wallace had to sit in the corner because she refused to write anything besides princess stories and fairy tales (and because she talked too much). Her time in isolation gave her plenty of opportunities to dream up the fantasy worlds she's been dabbling with ever since.
