Doing Good Better is a podcast about effective altruism, the idea that we shouldn't just try to do good — instead, we should try to do the most good that we can. Over three episodes, we explore the key ideas of effective altruism. You can subscribe to the podcast on iTunes, Stitcher, Soundcloud, and more. This website has extra information about the podcast, and each episode includes a full transcript.

Doing Good Better Podcast

My academic research focuses on the fundamentals of effective altruism - the use of evidence and reason to help others by as much as possible with our time and money, with a particular concentration on how to act given moral uncertainty. I am the author of Doing Good Better - Effective Altruism and a Radical New Way to Make a Difference.

William MacAskill

About Doing Good Better. An up-and-coming visionary in the world of philanthropy and a cofounder of the effective altruism movement explains why most of our ideas about how to make a difference are wrong and presents a counterintuitive way for each of us to do the most good possible. While a researcher at Oxford, William MacAskill decided to devote his study to a simple question: How can we do good better?
