For Brave, Pixar rewrote its animation system for the first time in 25 years. [22] To reproduce the lush and texture look of the landscapes of the Highlands, Pixar animators and designers created around 350 custom brushes in Photoshop, so that they could layer different designs, patterns and shapes in layers other to achieve a realistic and invisible look to all of the environments.

Brave | Pixar Wiki | Fandom

As usual Pixar breaks new ground with this film. However, audiences and critics are not noticing its freshness because this genre is so familiar and the film is so subtle. Brave asks its audience to think about values and society, just as Pixar's Wall-E and The Incredibles did. However, Brave whispers when other Pixar films have been more ...
