Rochot; a paperback reprint of this so-called new edition was published in 1996.

The Correspondence of René Descartes - EMLO

The French philosopher and mathematician Rene Descartes (1596-1650) gave a high priority to medicine and dedicated a great deal of his life to medical studies. Nevertheless, his relation to medicine has always been debated. A number of recent works have contributed to reassessing the earlier critique which nearly wrote him out from medical history.
