Contracting self-employed workers can be an attractive option for salon owners, not least because of savings in tax, National Insurance, holiday pay and sick pay. But HMRC has taken an increasing interest in the legitimacy of self-employment practice in salons as it loses them hundreds of thousands of pounds in revenue annually.

The rules around contracting self-employed workers

Independent contractors are contracted, responsible for all of their own taxes, and do not answer to a salon owner except to ensure the contract terms have been fulfilled. Independent contractors must be provided with a 1099 form at the end of the year by any person who has contracted them and paid them more than $600 in that year.
