In a quantitative study you will present the hypotheses; Findings (qualitative), Results (quantitative, and Discussion (quantitative) In a qualitative study the information to be reported is called findings. Findings are those themes that have emerged from or have been found in the data you collected. They are the product of your analysis.

The Elements of Chapter 4 - Navigating The Dissertation

Chapter 4 for Qualitative Research carries different titles such as 'Analysis of Data', 'Results of Study', 'Analysis and Results' and so forth. The key words are 'analysis' and 'results' which implies that you have 'analyzed' the raw data and are presenting the 'results' or what you discovered in the fieldwork carried out, in this Chapter. Students always find it difficult to document their findings.
