Pirate Alexander Hawke 3 Ted

"Pirate" is the third book in the Hawke series, dealing with Hawke and his quest to save the world from a deadly alliance between the Chinese and French. Having read three other books in the "Hawke" series ("Spy" and the first 2), I felt this book was at best rather mediocre. It's less of this book itself, but more of the repetition in the series.

Ted Bell was setting up a wonderful tale with the first books in the Hawke line but this novel absolutely takes the cake. With Bells new book "Warriors" on its way, now would be a good time to pick this one up. No need to start at the beginning of the series. If time is of the essence, Pirate is the answer.
