Memorial services may be held at LAFC, but funerals, defined here as ceremonies with the remains of the deceased (either casket or ashes), may not be held at LAFC. If it is desired that the remains of the deceased be included, then the service should not be held at an SGI-USA facility. Another appropriate location should be found.

Recently, many Soka Gakkai members have been conducting funeral and memorial services for their departed family members or friends without the attendance of a priest to officiate the services. This has been done either in accord with the last will of the deceased or due to the expressed desire of the family.
