Objects Of Our Affection Uncovering

Perhaps Tracy's book resonated with me due to our recent move - and disposal of nearly all our furniture and household goods- but Objects of OUR Affection succeeds quite well in its conceit of telling a family's stories through it's heirlooms, furniture, and goods. Tracy examines her family's ancestry through the stories attached to the objects as she attempts to trace each item's provenance for an impending estate auction.

Abstract. In this chapter I discuss a number of artifacts that play an important role in our everyday lives, what I call the objects of our affection. These objects are imbedded in our lives and reflect, in various ways, ideas we have about these objects and how they should look, how they should function, and the role they should play in our lives.
