Marketing in the Age of Alexa - Harvard Business Review

Marketing to this age group is really a compound effort of marketing to Baby Boomers and marketing to Millennials. You'll need to bear in mind everything we said about loyalty, but also consider that this group has more than just a tenuous grasp on social media.

Marketing To Different Age Demographics

For instance, if 2 people in different demographics (age range, city, or both) show similar behavior and mindsets which resonates with a certain campaign, an audience marketing-driven company would include them in the targeting, and not discard them based on their age alone. Important Characteristics for Audience Marketing
