From start to final bend, the hilmor Tri-Tube Bender has you covered. It begins with simple sizing. There are indicators in the handles to help you correctly identify the tube size. After that, it's as simple as aligning it with its color-coded indicators. Finally, the markings on the side help measure the bend radius so you can achieve a perfect bend of up to 180°.

The Hilmor GLM is a nice bit of kit, and the best bender in my opinion. As said before, don't worry about the throating. When you bend a pipe, you are stretching the metal as well, which alters the circumference of the pipe. After a while, you will be able to pull 90s and 45s by eye. Until then, a set-square or triangle may help things.
