Browning's poem 'Meeting at Night' is far from a simplistic love poem. Although it does express passionate love and excitement through the scene described, it is also cleverly crafted using descriptive details and colors that help create imagery. Sensory details are used to evoke the reader's senses of smell, sight, sound and touch. The symbol of fire is also used in the first stanza to represent passionate love, and a rhyme scheme of ABCCBA ABCCBA creates a rhythmic flow in which ...
