Liz Kessler is my....2nd favorite author, but this book just seemed to be a sad miserable repeat of A Year Without Autumn. I loved all her books, as I have read them all, but this book was confusing and odd and did not end the way I had hoped. I was half way the book before I realized this was a book by Liz, as it said it on the back.

North of Nowhere by Liz Kessler - Goodreads

Even though she has to deal with her annoying little brother, her slightly overbearing dad, and her very pregnant mom, she gets to spend a week with her bestest friend in the world, Autumn. But twelve-year-old Jenni's world turns upside down when she takes an old elevator to visit Autumn and discovers that everything has changed: not only is her friend in a different condo, but tragedy has struck Autumn's family, Jenni's mother has had her baby, and everyone is a year older.
