A former early-grades teacher read this book to a group of mature women after a dinner at our club. She had two soft dolls, one a polliwog and the other a caterpillar, which, as she read the story, she slowly unzipped and turned inside out.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: The Caterpillar and the Polliwog

The caterpillar is bummed that she is not the only creature that will change. And the polliwog assumes that he will change into a butterfly since he is making a change also. A good story to talk about frogs and caterpillars in the spring and how they change. Program worthy I think though more for like a pre-k group rather than elementary school.
