Take the defensive posture of running. Unless your attacker is making it impossible, trying to get away is the only guarantee of your safety. If you can avoid a fight, avoid it and run away. Remember to never turn your back on an opponent. If you do this the opponent will use this as a chance to attack.

Handbook How To Take And Defend ...

The best way to defend yourself against a knife attack is to run away, if at all possible. As you run, yell for help, which will draw attention to you and make your attacker less likely to pursue you.

Alternatively, if you can't run away from your attacker, talk to them to find out what they want and whether you can deescalate the situation. ...
