Rigante children were also traditionally given soul-names. While a mother gave birth to her child, the father would climb the Elder Mountain and await an omen which would inspire the choice of a soul-name. Some examples of Rigante soul-names are "Eagle in the Moonlight" and "Sword in the Storm".

Rigante | David Gemmell Wiki | Fandom

Comments Share. The Rigante series is a series of four heroic fantasy novels written by David Gemmell. They are centered around the Rigante clan of the Keltoi people, clearly inspired by the highlanders of Scotland. In the first novel Sword in the Storm and its direct sequel Midnight Falcon, the Rigante face the expanding empire of Stone (analogous to the real-world Roman Empire).

Rigante series | David Gemmell Wiki | Fandom

sword in the storm introduces the reader to the world of the Rigante, loosely based upon the ancient Celts and their struggles against the ever encroaching armies of Rome, or Stone as they are portrait in this David Gemmell classic. As the first of the Rigante series it magnificently stands alone, much more so than the other books in this series.
