The Infinite Tides by Christian Kiefer by Bloomsbury ...

About The Infinite Tides. Keith Corcoran has spent his entire life preparing to be an astronaut. At the moment of his greatness, finally aboard the International Space Station, hundreds of miles above Earth's swirling blue surface, he receives word that tragedy has befallen his family and that, in its wake, his wife has left their failing marriage. Returning to earth, to his now empty suburban home, Keith is alone with the ghosts, the memories and feelings he can barely acknowledge.

'The Infinite Tides,' by Christian Kiefer: review

The Infinite Tides is a relatable, heart touching story about everyday human regrets and desires. It touches on the idea of the American dream and exposes some of the realities that can upset and offset those dreams. I enjoyed reading the novel very much and look forward to reading more of Christian Kiefer's books.
