What Is Company

Liquidation?

Liquidation is a procedure where a company is brought to its end, meaning all of the assets are liquidated and all of the proceeds that are earned from asset sales will then be repaid to the creditors. This option should only proceed if you know your business can not come back to success and a good financial state.

The Process of Liquidation: How Does It Work for Companies?

The purpose of liquidation of an insolvent company is to have an independent and suitably qualified person (the liquidator) take control of the company so that its affairs can be wound up in an orderly and fair way for the benefit of creditors.
