The Little Girl In The Radiator by Martin Slevin | Waterstones

The Little Girl in the Radiator by Martin Slevin(2012, Monday Books)Review by John. This is not just another 'isn't dementia awful' moan. It is a very honest and clear account of five years of a son looking after his mother - at home, in care homes and hospitals. The author knows nothing about the condition when he embarks on the journey, seeks no help apart from that of social services, and apparently reads little about it.
