American Shino: The Glaze of a Thousand Faces: Richter ...

Shino has since become one of the more popular glazes in American pottery studios. Many variations have spawned from Wirt's original formula. Although many different colorants and fluxes can be added, creating a wide range of effects, Shino glazes in America are all characterized by the use of soda ash and by a high ratio of alumina to silica. Under certain firing conditions, the soda ash causes carbon to be trapped in the glaze, creating the characteristic grey spots or patches on the ...
