Country living room ideas | House & Garden

When it comes to furniture, the word "traditional" is really an umbrella term referring to modern-day takes on many of the furniture styles popular during the 1700s and 1800s, such as Queen Anne or Victorian. Today's traditional is often less ornate, dark, and heavy than the original styles it's modeled on, but it's still more ornately trimmed and styled than contemporary designs.
