Ironfire David Ball

David Ball does a fantastic job not only with his characters, but setting them in a world which feels at once intimately familiar and alien. He breathes life into the setting and into the events that surround this epochal moment in western history.

Ironfire by David Ball - Goodreads

IRONFIRE took David Ball three years to write and is quite a creative and research achievement. It's an entertaining way to learn some of the history of the long-standing Christian-Muslim or East-West conflict, which we have inherited today. A 667-page epic, IRONFIRE is crammed with incident about a Maltese brother and sister and their separation as children when Muslim sea raiders capture ...
