Village Savings And Loans Association

Summary. A Village Savings and Loan Association (VSLA) is a group of people who meet regularly to save together and take small loans from those savings. The activities of the group run in cycles of one year, after which the accumulated savings and the loan profits are distributed back to the members. The purpose of a VSLA is to provide simple savings and loan facilities in a community that does not have easy access to formal financial services.

The VSLA methodology - VSLA

The Village Savings and Loan Association (VSLA) model creates self-managed and self-capitalised savings groups that use members' savings to lend to each other. VSLAs are comprised of between 10 and 25 members and offer self-managed savings, insurance and credit services in urban slums and remote rural areas.
