Davita's Harp - Wikipedia

Davita's Harp had me even more hooked than Asher Lev did. At first I was wondering if the stories were going to entwine because of the setting and time, because of the age of the characters and both Davita's and Asher's similarly unique ways of thinking and speaking. Obviously Potok has found a brilliant way to portray the thou

Davita's Harp by Chaim Potok - Goodreads

'Davita's Harp' is another compelling novel from Chaim Potok. I don't know how I'd missed this one, having read all his other novels long ago; but what a treat! To be able to lose yourself in a book, and feel dismayed to reach the end is a rare thing; yet something I've come to expect from Potok's books. A truly skilled author, offering us a glimpse into Jewish culture, in this instance ...

Davita | house-of-harrari

Davita's Harp is a terrific read by Chiam Potok. He captures the mood, tensions and conflicts in the lives of the Jewish community in this country during the terrible times of McCarthyism and paranoia. As a Jewish child who was raised during that period, I found this to be a touching affirmation of all that we felt.
