Brent C. Brolin

Reviews of 1st Edition. "Brolin attempts to liberate the budding architect from the frustrating dogmatism of his grandfathers, who branded all ornamentation as sinful...a provocative book which comes at the right time.". Arthur Koestler. "For every urban professional, (the book) is an important, insightful, thought-provoking look at the basic assumptions which underlie modern architectural practice...a study that may uncover the key to making buildings more responsive to user needs.”.
