Lasting Impressions. Making Literature Matter" by John Schilb and John Clifford, there is a brief biography of Roethke's life where it explains that his father has influenced much of his work. This shows that whatever went on at home when Roethke was young gave him a lasting impression all through his life. In his poem "My Papa's Waltz" he makes his father the main character but at the same time he explains what was going in his head as his father was putting him off to bed.
