Miss. Browning's Science Class

According to Browning, these men were middle-aged from the working- and lower-middle-class and were too old to join the German army. Most of these men had little to no experience with the military and were now suddenly given power.

Summary - Ordinary Men

The FN Model 1910, also known as the Browning model 1910, was a departure for Browning. Before, his designs were produced by both FN in Europe and Colt Firearms in the United States. Since Colt did not want to produce it, Browning chose to patent and produce this design in Europe only.
