Strategic Navigation: A Systems Approach to Business Strategy. H. William Dettmer. Description. Strategic Navigation introduces the Constraint Management (CM) model for strategy development and deployment, integrates the logical Thinking Process with time-tested principles of military thinking and planning, and applies the result to the commercial sector and non-military government agencies.

Strategic Navigation: A Systems Approach to Business ...

Strategic Navigation is destined to force TOC to the tipping point. Actually, it completes the evolution of TOC and brings it to a more robust model known as the Constraints Management Model (CMM). Dettmer documents the application of CMM in the world of strategy by using the thinking process tools of TOC in combination with the learning theories advanced by the late Colonel John R. Boyd, (USAF retired).
