About Humanity in the Mystery of God. Schillebeeckx's theology is a reflection on the nature of God who is both creator and redeemer: his theology is a 'treatise' on the God who is God for humanity. This means of course that his theology is always both a reflection on the nature of God and on the meaning of humanity; and hence there is a theological anthropology at the centre of his whole theological enterprise.

However, retribution theology in Deuteronomy, as well as the prophetic books, is applied to the nation of Israel as a whole and is not intended to be applied on the individual level. Further, our understanding of sin and judgment must include an eschatological dimension in addition to allowing space for God to extend grace as he sees fit.
