The Historical Misunderstanding: Charfi ...

In Islam and Liberty: The Historical Misunderstanding, Tunisian scholar Mohamed Charfi tackles the question of Islam's compatibility with democracy and liberal values. In Charfi's view, the fundamentalism, autocracy, and developmental lag we see in the Muslim world today are all closely related: they are the results of a historical evolution by which Islam has strayed far from its original spiritual message of peace and equality.

Islam and Liberty: The Historical Misunderstanding

The book Islam and Liberty: The Historical Misunderstanding,

Mohamed Charfi is published by Zed Books.

Islam and Liberty: The Historical Misunderstanding, Charfi

The "historical misunderstanding" in the subtitle refers to his thesis that liberty is intrinsic to Islam. Charfi is unabashedly a modernist Muslim who contends that the traditional insistence of Muslims on religion and politics in Islam being inseparable is the source of much difficulty.

Review of Islam and Liberty: The Historical Misunderstanding

Charfi believes passionately that those Arabs who campaign for freedom and democracy are not deracinated supporters of Western constructs. Rather, they are treading the same precarious but necessary path as thinkers such as Mohammed Abdoh and Tahar Haddad who called for a new understanding of Islam and modernity over 100 years ago.
