Cultural Awareness in Social Work: What You Need to Know

Wednesday, 24 April 2019. A common misconception people have of cultural awareness is that it’s about “the other”; that its main focus is learning about other people and how they do and don’t do things. Although this is certainly part of it, cultural awareness also relies heavily on self-awareness. Without understanding your own self and why you do the things you do, say the things you say and believe the things you believe – you can never really appreciate another’s point of view.

Self-Awareness is Key to Cultural Awareness
