‘Sex and the Constitution’ - The Washington Post

Same -sex marriage was not legalized in the constitution until June of 2015. I remember it was June because it was all over social media. There are 37 states that recognize same-sex marriage currently. The Supreme Court has refused to step in and block same-sex marriage because a state has current law banning it.

Same-Sex and the Constitution Free Essay Example

“Writing confidently and expertly about several centuries of American laws regulating sex, Stone shows that the line between moral and religious reasoning was almost always illusory. . . . Sex and the Constitution is most persuasive when Stone turns to America, and his comprehensive knowledge of constitutional law is put on full display. He is especially good on the eighteenth century, bringing a bracing and much-needed dose of reality about the Founders’ views of sexuality. . . .
