Henry Nelson McKinney, an advertising agent for N. W. Ayer & Son, was the man who came up with the term "sneaker." This was a brilliant marketing idea for the newly invented rubber soled shoes. He said that the rubber soles made the shoes "stealth" like so he termed them sneakers. The first sneakers were Keds and they were invented in 1917.

10 Facts About the History of Shoes - Lifehack

The Cinderella story refers to her perfect, small foot fitting into the glass slipper. Several cultures have histories of emphasizing foot size as a sign of feminine/masculine attraction," she says.

Everything You Need to Know About Foot Fetishes - AskMen

During the 18th century women began wearing heels again and men started to wear the thigh length boots (some still with heels) and flat shoes again made from leather. During the Victorian era, (I know I said only to Regency but I had to add this!) the ankle boot became popular for women to ward off any stares from men at their oh-so-sensual ankles.
